

Balogh Szabolcs

I'm Szabolcs Balogh, a 25-year-old Junior Frontend Developer based in Hungary. Fresh out of a bootcamp, I'm eager to dive into the world of web development. My strong command of English enables seamless communication, and I'm ready to explore opportunities beyond borders. I take pride in my precision, thrive in collaborative settings, possess a keen problem-solving mind, and pride myself on being a fast learner. I'm on the hunt for my next challenge and excited to bring my skills to your team!
